

33rd ANNUAL CATAUMET ARTISTS' FAIR

Sun. August 7, 2011

10:00 AM-4:00 PM

The 33rd Annual CATAUMET ARTISTS' FAIR will be held on the grounds of the Cataumet Arts Center and adjacent Washington Park, One Post Office Square, Cataumet Village, Bourne, MA, on Sunday, August 7th, 2011 from 10:00 AM to 4:00 PM.

The 2011 fair will feature wood turning, wool spinning, live music and storytelling and open artists' studios. Enjoy indoor and outdoor exhibits by over 60 Cape Cod artists in a wide range of media. Artists will be on site to talk about their work and their unique processes.

Works to see include oil paintings pastels, sculptures, carved animals, mobiles and mirrors, wood burning, weavings, hand dyed yarns, photographs, watercolors and decorative and folk arts. Other media that will be displayed include hand blown glass, jewelry, pottery, handmade soaps and lavender products, and mosaics.

Visitors can purchase lunch foods from 11 am until 4 pm including veggie burgers, hot dogs, watermelon, an assortment of home made baked goods and pastries, fresh lemonade, iced tea and iced coffee.

Exhibits and activities can be enjoyed by all ages, and guests can relax outdoors with a lunch or a pastry while enjoying the live music, and taking in the many varied indoor and outdoor art displays and demonstrations.

Proceeds from the sale of artists' works will benefit programs at the Cataumet Arts Center.

Admission is free. For more information and directions, call (508) 563-5434, or visit www.cataumet-arts.org.
